SATURDAY, 13 FEBRUARY 2027

Klein DasBosch · Stellenbosch, South Africa

WEEKEND EVENTS

ORDER OF FESTIVITIES

Thursday, 11 February 2027

Welcome Event

An informal gathering to open the celebrations — details to follow. Please make your own way; we are not arranging transfers on Thursday.

Saturday, 13 February 2027

Ceremony & Reception

Klein DasBosch. Plan for roughly 17:30 until 06:00.

Saturday

17:30 Guest arrival

18:15 Ceremony begins

On Saturday we will run shuttles for guests staying in the Winelands — not only the hotels listed below. Closer to the wedding we will ask where you are staying and whether you would like a collection. Return shuttles will run from late evening until 06:00, within about 20 km of the venue. We are not arranging transfers for Thursday.

CEREMONY & RECEPTION

KLEIN DASBOSCH

Klein DasBosch is Cornell's family wine estate — the farm he grew up on.

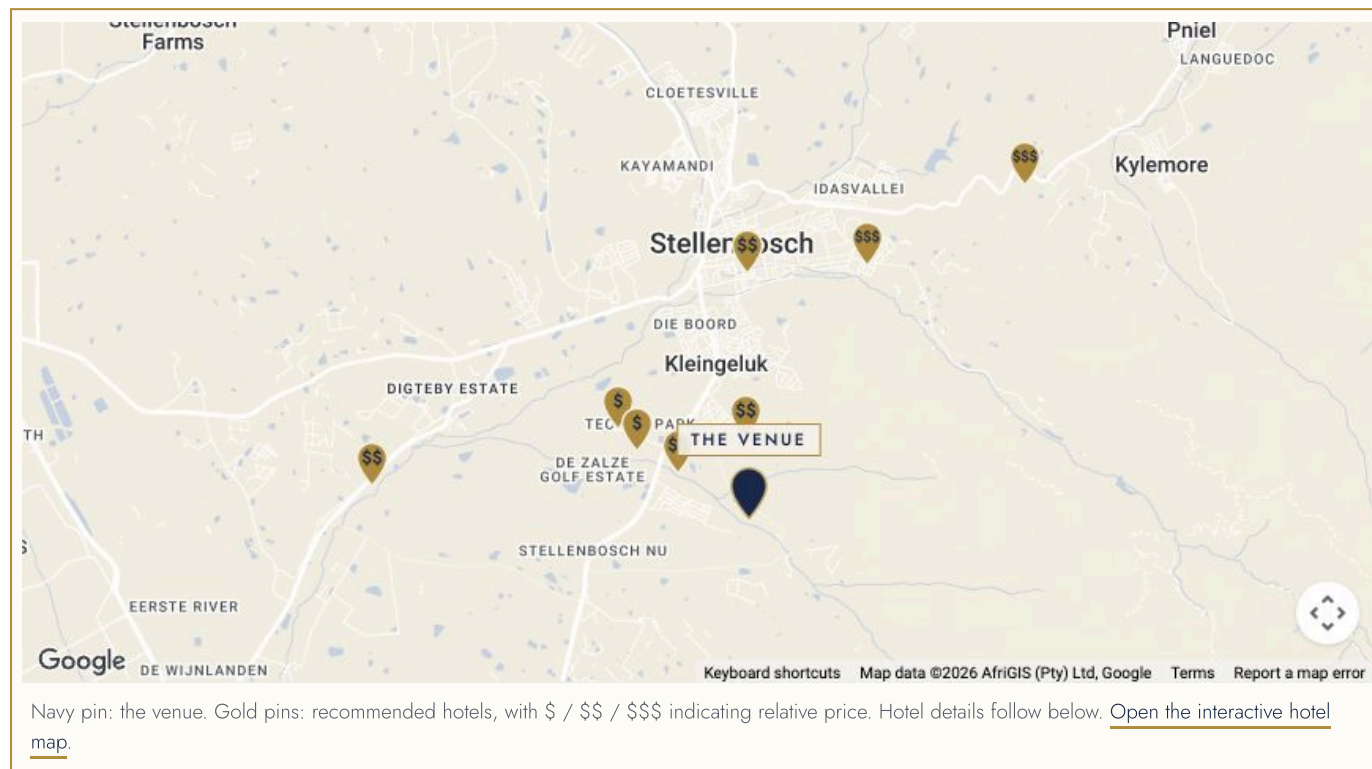

Set on the banks of the Blaauwklippen River in the valley that shares its name, on the southern edge of Stellenbosch. The farm is about ten minutes from the town centre and ±35 min drive from Cape Town International Airport via the R310 and N2; Mont Marie restaurant sits just across the road, with Vriesenhof as a neighbour.

Address: Blaauwklippen Road · Stellenbosch, 7600 · South Africa

PART III

THE GARDEN ROUTE & PLETTENBERG BAY

Plett sits on the Garden Route — Blue Flag beaches, the Robberg Nature Reserve hike, whale watching (June–November), and day trips to Knysna and Tsitsikamma.

GETTING THERE

Fly direct

CemAir flies Cape Town → Plettenberg Bay (PBZ) on Mondays, Fridays and Sundays, ~1 hour, from R1.6k–2k / $100–125 one-way

flycemair.co.za

Fly via George

FlySafair from ~R930 / $58 and Airlink from ~R1.4k / $88, ~1 hour with multiple flights daily, then a 1h15 drive to Plett

Drive

~520 km and ± 6 hours, better taken slowly. The N2 climbs over Sir Lowry's Pass with views across False Bay, then runs through the Overberg's canola and wheat fields and past the oak-lined streets of Swellendam. From Mossel Bay the Garden Route begins: the lakes of Wilderness, the Kaaimans River pass, Knysna's lagoon and the Heads, and stretches of indigenous forest — before the road descends into Plett. Make a day (or two) of it, with stops along the way

Private

Fixed-wing charter from ~R35k / $2.2k per aircraft (up to 5 passengers, e.g. via ExecuJet or Air du Cap). Helicopter is at the edge of range — fixed-wing recommended

Safari

Many guests ask about adding a safari to the trip.

NEAR CAPE TOWN · ~2 HOURS

AQUILA PRIVATE GAME RESERVE

Day trips from R2.9k / $180 pp. It is a fenced Big 5 reserve — convenient if you have little time. For an unfenced safari, fly to Kruger · aquilasafari.com

KRUGER & SABI SAND

FLY TO THE BUSH

Fly to the Kruger area. Singita from R60k / $3.75k pp/night all-inclusive · singita.com. Londolozi is known for leopards, from R28k / $1.75k pp/night · londolozi.com. &Beyond Ngala from R19k / $1.2k pp/night · andbeyond.com.

Daily direct Airlink flights run Cape Town → Skukuza (~2h50m, from R4.9k / $310 one-way), and lodges arrange airstrip transfers. We recommend a minimum of three nights. February offers great game-viewing — book far ahead.

PRACTICAL INFO

Good to Know

WEATHER February is peak summer: hot and dry, 25–35°C, with strong sun and an occasional southeaster wind. Pack sunscreen, a hat and light layers.	MONEY The currency is the South African Rand (ZAR). Cards are accepted everywhere and tap-to-pay is ubiquitous — you will rarely need cash.
TIPPING 10–15% at restaurants is customary; small change is appreciated by car guards and petrol attendants.	GETTING AROUND Uber works well in Cape Town and Stellenbosch. Don't walk alone at night in the city — take a car.
SAFETY Common sense goes a long way: keep valuables out of sight, lock your car, and use Uber after dark.	WATER Tap water is safe to drink throughout the region.
PLUGS South Africa uses the type M plug — bring an adapter.	DRESS CODE Garden formal — summer elegance. The ceremony is on a wine estate, so block heels are wise for the lawns. February days are hot and the evenings mild — light fabrics, linen suits and summer dresses are perfect.

WITH GRATITUDE

Gifts

Your presence is the greatest gift. If you would like to give something, we would be honoured by a donation to a charity close to our hearts — details to follow.

OPTIONAL EXTRAS

PRIVATE FLYING & HELICOPTERS

For guests who would like to see the Cape from the air while they're here — flying on to safari lodges, hopping down the coast to Plettenberg Bay, or taking a scenic flight over the Winelands and the Peninsula.

ExecuJet Cape Town — fixed-wing private charter and a VIP FBO terminal at Cape Town International (Tower Road, CPT). Charter quotes via Luxaviation · luxaviation.com · FBO: execujet.com · +27 21 934 5764 · fbo.fact@execujet.com

Legend Helicopters — JC Geyer is a friend of the family who arranges helicopter experiences: Winelands hops (Delaire Graff, Lanzerac), full Cape Peninsula flights from R22.5k / $1.4k per flight, and lodge transfers · legendhelicopters.co.za · +27 66 157 2994 · book@legendhelicopters.co.za
